

Teaching Quality and California's Future
Forum Agenda
Friday, January 20, 2012
9:30 a.m.-1:30 p.m.
Sheraton Grand Hotel, Sacramento, CA

9:30-9:40	Introduction and opening comments Sandra Dean, Associate Director, Accomplished California Teachers Christy Pichel, President, Stuart Foundation
9:40-10:00	Announcement of state policy initiative Tom Torlakson, State Superintendent for Public Instruction
10:00-11:30	Teaching Quality Research John Fensterwald (moderator), Editor and Co-Writer, TOPed.org , Thoughts on Public Education in California Barnett Berry, President, Center for Teaching Quality Bay Area New Millennium Initiative Anna Martin, Middle School Resource Teacher, San Jose Sherene Judeh, High School Humanities Teacher, Oakland Accomplished California Teachers David Cohen, English Teacher, Palo Alto USD Anthony Cody, Retired Science Teacher, Oakland SRI International and J. Koppich & Associates Dan Humphrey, Associate Director, SRI Center for Education Policy Julia Koppich, President, J. Koppich and Associates Q&A with audience
11:30-12:20	Teaching Quality Policy John Fensterwald (moderator) Assemblymember Felipe Fuentes (D-Sylmar) Richard Carranza, Deputy Superintendent, San Francisco Unified School District Shannan Brown, Fifth Grade Math and Science Student Teacher at Stafford Township Schools, 2011 California Teacher of the Year Eric Heins, California Teachers Association Vice President
12:20-1:30	Lunch
12:45-1:15	Keynote Address Linda Darling-Hammond, Stanford University Charles E. Ducommun Professor of Education and SCOPE Co-Director